

Quaker United Nations Office/Quaker Peace & Social Witness

One year Geneva Programme Assistants

QUNO/QPSW are seeking two young, single Friends or people in close sympathy with the Religious Society of Friends, in the age range of 21 to 30 years, to join the small team at the Quaker UN Office (QUNO) Geneva. This is an excellent chance to learn about and participate in substantive Quaker work at the UN in Geneva, working particularly with the Representative for Global Economic Issues or the Representative for Human Rights & Refugees. Flexibility and willingness to assist generally in the office and with catering and domestic duties are essential. Knowledge of French or Spanish desirable. Appointment September 2005 to August 2006 inclusive after two-week preparation period in August 2005. Modest salary and accommodation allowance.

For further details and an application pack contact www.quaker.org.uk or email: personnel@quaker.org.uk Quote reference: QPSW 30.

Human Resources Office, Friends House, Euston Rd, London NW1 2BJ

Closing date for applications is 19th May 2005.