

Directions to Quaker House

Quaker House, 13 avenue du Mervelet, Geneva, tel: 022 748 4800

Enter Quaker House by the single gate labeled No. 13 for smaller meetings or the double gates (with driveway) for larger meetings.

By bus or tram:

From the Place des Nations:

Take bus No. 22. Get off at the stop called “Mervelet.” Avenue du Mervelet is the first turning from the bus stop, continuing in the same direction as the bus, on the right. Note: Bus 22 runs several times an hour. The bus ride takes about 8 minutes. <http://www.tpg.ch/en/horaires>

From the railway station (Gare Cornavin):

Take tram 14 or 18 from the station towards Meyrin. Get off at the stop called “Bouchet”, approximately 8 minutes and 5 stops from the train station. (NB DO NOT GO TO BACHET – BACHET IS COMPLETELY IN THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION). Bus 10 (towards Aéroport) also stops at Bouchet but takes slightly longer than the tram.

When you get off at Bouchet, walk towards the Tea Room and Boulangerie “Ehinger,” and up behind it you will see the chemin Charles Georg (see map overleaf). Walk to the end of chemin Charles Georg and turn left onto avenue du Mervelet. Quaker House is the second house on the left hand side. The walk from the bus and tram stops to Quaker House takes about 8 minutes.

From the airport (Cointrin):

After collecting baggage, but before leaving through customs, collect a free 1-hour public transport ticket. These are available from the machines to the left of the door to customs. Come out of the airport, following signs to the bus No. 10 stop. Take bus No. 10 towards “Rive”. Get off at “Bouchet,” sixth stop, which takes about 8 minutes.

Walk in the direction of the bus and cross over the two roads towards the Tea Room and Boulangerie “Ehinger,” and up behind it you will see the chemin Charles Georg (see map below). Walk to the end of chemin Charles Georg and turn left onto Avenue du Mervelet. Quaker House is the second house on the left hand side. The walk from the bus stop to Quaker House takes about 8 minutes.

By car:

Quaker House is located between Petit Saconnex and route de Meyrin, just off avenue du Bouchet. If travelling from the UN, pass through Petit Saconnex (keep the Café du Soleil on your right), past the International Federation of Red Cross/Red Crescent Societies (on your left), to the first set of traffic lights just beyond the Federation. Avenue du Mervelet is the first right after that intersection. Quaker House is on the left side of the road about 200 meters up (2d house past chemin Ch. Georg). Please note that there is blue zone parking in this area. This means that on working days, there is a one hour parking restriction from 8am to 11.30am, and 1.30pm to 6pm. On evenings, weekends and public holidays, there are no time restrictions.

Bus and tram stops

Number 22 from place des Nations

Number 10 from airport

Tram 14 from Cornavin train station

